

SOUTHEASTERN

A large group of students, likely a school team or club, are posed in a gymnasium. They are arranged in many rows, with some students sitting on the floor in the front and others standing behind them. The students are wearing a variety of casual clothing, including t-shirts, sweaters, and jeans. In the background, a large sign with the word "HAWKS" is visible on the wall. The gymnasium floor is a light-colored wood, and there are some white lines on it. The overall atmosphere is that of a formal group portrait.

Superintendent

To the Graduating Class of 1999:

The time has come for you to participate in a new venture. You will be entering the "world of work" or attending a post-secondary school. Your high school diploma and vocational certificate will greatly assist you in meeting the many challenges that you will face in the years ahead.

It is my hope that Southeastern has given much to you so that you will be successful and that you will have fond memories of your school and your classmates.

I congratulate the Class of 1999 and wish you the best of health and good fortune in the years ahead.

Yours truly,

PRINCIPAL

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1999:

I would like to extend to you my best wishes and sincere congratulations completing your requirements to graduate. During your four years at Southeastern, you have had intense training and academic preparation allowing you access to a competitive workforce in a highly technical society. Shortly, you will enter the workforce and you will rely on your preparation to see you through it. Allow yourself the opportunity to lay a solid foundation for your future.

Continue to "learn as you earn." Remember your classmates, your teachers, and the folks that were always there for you... your parents. Maybe one or all touched your life and pointed you in the direction to succeed. Go forward, be successful, and be determined.

Take your skills, your knowledge and add to the accomplishment of your communities. Continue to stay involved with education as you meet the complexities on an ever-changing society.

Very Truly Yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Patrick H. O'Neill, Ed.D.". The signature is written in a fluid, connected style.

Leonard Houlker

October 28, 1959 - September 2, 1998

*In Good Memory
We will live through such tragedy
In loss of Mr. Houlker
We could cry on every shoulder
but deep down inside we know he would want us to say our last good-byes
and go on with our lives
So we're going to dry our tears
and comfort our peers he's remembered as someone who was born to teach he encouraged every student for great heights to reach
In memory of Mr. Houlker
We will let out a smile
because his time with us was much more than worthwhile.*

A large group of students, likely a school team or club, are posed in bleachers in front of a building. The students are arranged in many rows, filling the bleachers. They are wearing various casual clothing like t-shirts, sweaters, and jeans. Above them, a sign on the building reads "HAWKS". The photo is taken from a low angle, looking up at the students. The building behind them has a light-colored wall and a window with a grid pattern.
